Commercial Burglary Suspect Arrested

South Pasadena – On Sunday, February 4, 2024, at 2:00 a.m., a South Pasadena Police Officer was conducting a routine business check in the alley of the 1100 block of Fair Oaks Avenue when he spotted a suspicious subject loitering near the rear door of a closed business.

Officers checked the business and found evidence of a burglary. Further investigation revealed that the subject was in possession of property belonging to the business. The property was recovered and returned to the business owner.

The suspect, thirty-five-year-old Giovanni Rosales of El Monte, was arrested for P.C. 459, Commercial Burglary, and an outstanding felony burglary warrant out of Orange County. He was booked and is currently being housed at the Inmate Reception Center in Downtown Los Angeles.

Anyone with additional information about this incident is urged to call the South Pasadena Police Department at (626) 403-7265. If you would like to provide an anonymous tip, you can call Crime Stoppers at (800) 222-TIPS (8477).
